NOTE: I have not yet manually indicated the A or B folds nor the edges that need to be cut. The dotted lines are the "bend" centers, NOT the edges to cut or slice. You will have to reverse engineer the bends until I have the time to add them myself. The pattern may also run a little long at times as the program doesn't easily account for length needed to bend foamboard so hopefully I corrected it. 180 degree folds are C-Type and the wing edge can be whatever fits your fancy right now.
 GOOD LUCK and thanks for checking this bird out.
